

The US Lacrosse National Convention, presented by Champion, and the US Lacrosse Fan Fest will bring roughly 5,000 lacrosse coaches, officials, administrators, trainers, players and fans to the Pennsylvania Convention Center in Philadelphia Jan. 13-15, 2012.

Men's and women's lacrosse coaches, officials and administrators of all levels of play may register for the US Lacrosse National Convention online at uslacrosse.org/2012convention through Jan. 2 for just $105, a savings of $45 on the walk-up price of $150. The convention annually is the largest professional development and networking event in the lacrosse world.

Following the close of online registration, walk-ups may scan the attached QR code to save $25 on the price of walk-up registration.

Former Philadelphia Eagle and NFL head coach Herm Edwards will return to the City of Brotherly Love and deliver the convention's keynote address at 7 p.m. Jan. 13. Former four-time Super Bowl referee Jerry Markbreit will speak to all lacrosse officials at 5 p.m. Jan. 14.

Among the coaches scheduled to speak at the convention: Richie Meade (U.S. men's senior team, former Navy coach), John Danowski (Duke men), John Walker (Virginia men), Chris Collins (Drexel men), Jim Berkman (Salisbury men), Jason Lamb (Adams State men), Tim Flynn (U.S. U19 men), Kelly Amonte Hiller (Northwestern women), Ricky Fried (U.S. women's senior team, Georgetown), Kelly Berger (UMBC women), Karin Brower Corbett (Penn women), Janine Tucker (Johns Hopkins women), National Hall of Famers Bonnie Rosen (Temple women) and Chris Sailer (Princeton women), Lindsey Munday (USC women), Amber Falcone (Vanderbilt women), Katrina Dowd (Syracuse women) and Krystin Porcella (U.S. U19 women).

For more on the convention, including speaker schedules, hotel information and registration, visit uslacrosse.org/2012convention. Like the convention at facebook.com/uslnationalconvention. Follow the convention on Twitter at @uslaxconvention. Tweet using the hashtag #laxconvention.

The US Lacrosse Fan Fest is open to the public from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Jan. 14. Fan Fest will feature demonstrations by players from the U.S. national teams and the Philadelphia Wings on the STX Live Field, and an appearance by the crew of the upcoming "Crooked Arrows" lacrosse feature film. Autographs will be available. Fan Fest also includes the sport's largest exposition hall, featuring 130 vendors with lacrosse gear, equipment, apparel and services. Fan Fest tickets are $10 onsite at the convention center, and just $5 for players wearing lacrosse team jerseys. Fan Fest is a terrific event for lacrosse families or lacrosse teams to attend together. Info also is available at uslacrosse.org/2012convention.